MC Students show off their Scots pride

A World of Spirit

Chad Jenkins, Patrick Baden, and Heath Jenkins show off their school spirit in preparation for the basketball playoff games.

Amanda Walker and Adrienne Clark head over to Cooper to enjoy a MC sporting event.

These MC students cheer their team on to victory.

MC

Adrienne Clark, Sarah Berkemeier, and Shannon Whitworth enjoy spending time with friends during a MC football game.

Seniors John Falco and Nathan Anderson display their school spirit by continuing the tradition of the Scottish kilt.

Amanda Walker, Adrienne Clark, Shannon Whitworth, and Sarah Berkemeier proudly wear their school colors.

Siblings are a common sight around campus

A World of Siblings

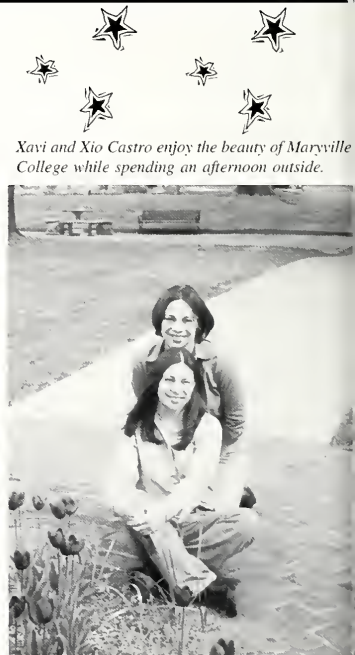

Chris and Chassidy Housewright take a break from school work to hang out.

Misty and Luke Herron spend time with their mother after MC soccer game.

Jacqui and Danni Thomas enjoy the finer things in life--climbing trees.

Xavi and Xio Castro enjoy the beauty of Maryville College while spending an afternoon outside.

Emily and David Simpson display their lighter side with each other.

Elyse and Ashley Gottschang display a little sisterly love.

BreAnn and Brooke Daniel enjoy an evening out with friends.

Sarah and Laura Overholt take time for each other while here at MC.

David and D'Lisa Hopewell take time out of their busy schedule to spend time together in the CCM.

Suzanne and Elizabeth Benton stop for a picture on their way to class.

MC students enjoy friends and good times

A World of Memories

MC students love to travel in packs. Here a group of students get together at Hops in Knoxville to celebrate Halloween.

Leah Ford and Heath Jenkins share a love for the Michigan Wolverines.

Chad Flatt, Claude Callicott, and Brian Gossett enjoy an afternoon of horseback riding.

Kristy Jones and Jennifer Moore enjoy one of the many past times in East Tennessee--UT football.

Lindsay Whitehurst, Leah Ford, and Johnathan Sitzlar enjoy a day of snow skiing in Beech Mountain, North Carolina.

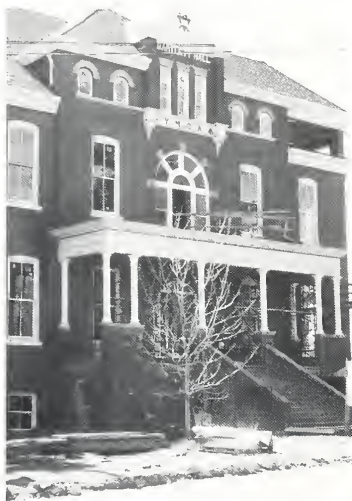

Callie Caughron and Angel Daniel are more than just team mates, they are friends and roommates.

Chad Flatt, Brad Waller, Brandon Chance, Claude Callicott, Clint James, Brian Gossett, and Jay Coatney spend a day away from MC.

Construction equipment overflows the campus

A World of Change

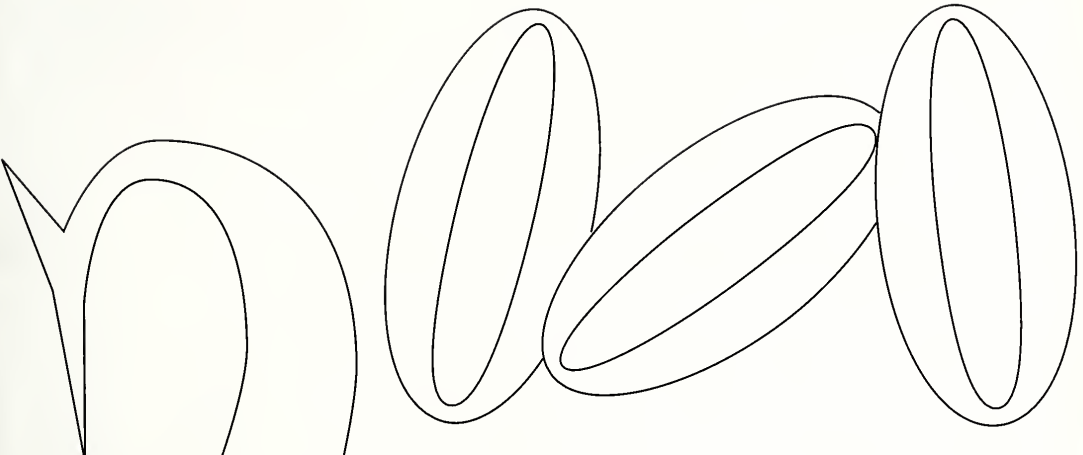

The renovation of Bartlett Hall into the new student center began construction in the fall of 1999.

Bartlett nears completion and is set to open for fall of 2000.

While Bartlett is being completed, the new Fayerweather is just starting.

Seniors

A World Beyond

In August of 1996 around 300 Freshmen began their journey through college life. Now here it is four years later and those Freshmen are now Seniors and make up the Maryville College Class of 2000. They have struggled, triumphed, and accomplished their goals. Now they are ready to head into a world beyond. This world is one full of mystique and wonder. It creates new challenges and goals for these bright young people. It will be full of heartaches, happiness, and amazement. The world is ahead of these people and there are no limits as to what they can do or accomplish. They have been taught and prepared to head into the next phase of their life and now it is up to them to take this challenge and run with it. As each Senior heads into the world beyond Maryville College they take with them the wonderful memories of their life here and the lasting friendships that they have been blessed with.

by Melissa M. Walker

Brooke Daniel and Laura Murphy take a break from their afternoon of rock climbing.

Chad Flatt, Clint James, Joette Russell, Tonya Briggs, Brian Gossett, Linzy Brakefield, Brad Waller, Jason Hall, Chris Housewright and Jon Wright enjoy an evening out with friends.

A World of Transition

Jon Gillooly is seen here with the kids from the Boys and Girls Club, which is where he spends his afternoons for his work study job.

class of 2001

Branham Lovingood, Katherine Best, and Johnathan Sitzlar participate in Homecoming activities by carrying the signs for the Homecoming Court.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines Junior as students in the third year. While this definition may seem brief it is also very telling. The third year is a time of adjustment that will come about through hard won victories as well as bitter defeats. There will be difficult decisions concerning doors, both closed and opened.

The Junior student may, at times, seem a changeling, and enigma during this passage. This is but a metamorphosis necessary to completing this journey. This is the cusp wherein the past will blend with the present to become a part of a greater whole.

Live it well, this Junior year. Live it one day at a time and believe in yourself. Become sagacious. You have the power.

A World of Endeavor

Taking time to enjoy friendships is one of the most valuable ways to spend time in college for these are friendships to last a lifetime.

class of 2002

Erika Gheen and Alyssa Taylor pause for a moment before heading off to class.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines a Sophomore as a person in the second year of carrying out an endeavor. This time period is central to the development of each personality as an individual. Some personalities will prove to be conspicuous while others will choose a quieter method of learning to define their self and their place in this world. Whatever mode is chosen, remember this will become a pattern for a lifetime of choices and ways of conducting yourself. Through all your endeavors attempt to maintain a truty for in doing so you will make yourself proud. Find someone to venerate. Take time out for fun.

A World of Possibility

These Freshmen take time for a picture while attending the MC basketball game.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines a Freshman as a beginner; a novice. Certainly that applies as this class will begin their college career at the dawn of a new millennium. The following years will contain a number of triumphs, failures, and moments that may seem to last a lifetime. It should be remembered the time here is a journey, a cumulative experience that will occur in stages. Savor those moments, each one is significant and will never be repeated. Take time out to appreciate the mystery of life and wonder at which surrounds you. Become distinct.

Tournament Time for the Scots

A record of 20 wins and 5 losses was good enough to get the 1999-2000 Lady Scots Basketball Team to the NCAA Tournament. Making the tournament was a sweet success for this year's senior class, who had come so close in the last 3 years, but finally made it this year.

"This year's team was a joy to coach," according to head coach Dean Walsh. "They have brought back the tournament tradition to Women's Basketball at MC.

The future looks bright for these Lady Scots."

The Scots, also led by Assistant Coach Amanda McAllister and Student Coach Greg Boyce, were the 4th seed in the South Region and finished their season with a 20-6 record.

Liz Hewitt received the GTE/Cosida Academic All South First Team Award, and the Columbia Multimedia All South recipients were 1st Team: Liz Hewitt and 3rd Team: Stephanie Howard.

Senior Chris Housewright outmaneuvers his opponent to score for the Scots.

From the beginning of the 1999-2000 season, the men's basketball team had one goal in mind: the NCAA Tournament. With 2 tournament appearances in their past, this year's senior class wanted to make it three, and they did. The Scots advanced all the way to the Sweet Sixteen, defeating the #1 ranked team in the nation, Hampden-Sydney, on the way.

Led by Head Coach Randy Lambert, the South

Region Coach of the Year, and Assistant Coach Michael Allen, the Scots finished their season with a 24-4 record, the second best in school history. Post-season rankings put them at #18 in the nation.

Individual Awards include All South recipient Chris Housewright and NABC Honor Roll recipients Kris Sigmund, Tim LeRoy, and Rusty Walker.

Women's Soccer

Strong Season for the Lady Scots

The Senior Class of the Lady Scots Soccer Team has a lot to be proud of. The 7 seniors have been instrumental in a program that has been in the top 10 in the South Region for 3 out of the past 4 years and has received the NSCAA Team Academic Award for three consecutive years. This year, the Lady Scots were 13th in the nation for the NSCAA Award with an average g.p.a. of 3.38.

Coached by Pepe Fernandez and John LaCava, the Lady Scots finished their season with a record of 10-5-1 and a ranking of 6th in the South Region.

Individual Awards include All South recipient Mandy Franklin and Academic All South Award recipients Misty Herron and Crissy Wieck.

The 1999 Men's Soccer Team finished their season with a record of 11-7-1, a turnaround from last year's 7-11 finish.

Coached by Pepe Fernandez and John LaCava, the Scots post-season ranking was 6th in the South Region.

"This year was another successful year for both of our teams," according to Coach Fernandez. "I am proud of our accomplishments both on and off the soccer field."

The Scots were led by seniors Drew Ermenc, Wes Gilliland, Justin Wright, and Danial Norman.

All South Award recipients include Stuart Bronstein and Paul Wieck.

Football

Senior Class Leads Scots to Victory

This Year's successful season was made possible by the Fighting Scots' largest Senior Class this decade.

After finishing 4-6 in the 1998 season, the Scots made an impressive turnaround, ending the 1999 season with a record of 7-3. Post-season rankings put the Scots as the #1 Independent in the South Region and #12 overall in the South Region.

The Scots not only gained team recognition, but many individuals were also recognized for their hard work and talent. The GTE/Cosida Academic All South Award recipients were 1st Team: Kevin Hedrick, Brian Gossett, and Jason Bartlett and 2nd Team: Chad Flatt. Kevin Hedrick was awarded the Burger King Scholar Athlete Award, which included a $10,000 grant to Maryville College. Finally, the All South Award recipients were 2nd Team: Wade Obermeyer and 3rd Team: Brian Gossett.

Scots have Best Season in 6 Years

The Lady Scots' primary goal for the 1999-2000 year was a 20-win season, and they achieved that goal with a final record of 20-13. This is the first 20-win season in 6 years for the volleyball program.

Coached by Kandis Schram and Assistant Coach Bill Rude, the Lady Scots were regionally ranked in three categories.

Highlights from the 1999-2000 season include winning the Maryville College Kick-Off Tournament and traveling to Colorado Springs, CO, for the Colorado College Spike It Up Classic Tournament.

The Lady Scots were led by their 3 seniors: Whitney Black, Kathy Brown, and Brandi Stewart. Academic All South Award recipient was 2nd Team: Whitney Black.

Outstanding Season for 1st-yr Coach

It is not often that a first-year coach can step in and lead his team to a 22-8 record and a national ranking, but that is just what Coach Bill Rude did for the 2000 Lady Scots Softball Team. Along with Assistant Coach Kelli Fitzgerald, Coach Rude helped guide the Lady Scots to an incredibly successful season. Along with their lone senior, Callie Caughron, the Scots were led by the talented team members Angel Daniel and Kalea Espiritu, both of whom were nationally ranked in individual statistics.

The 2000 Scots Baseball Team was led by a combination of leadership from returning players and freshman talent. Senior Alan Archbold and Freshman Rookie of the Year Dustin Bowen as well as other key players helped take the Scots to a record of 18-18, up from last year's 10-21 finish.

The Scots, guided by Head Coach Eric Etchison, Student Assistant Michael Ramsay, and Volunteer Assistant Dan Czech, were nationally ranked in four categories. The Scots finished in the top 10 in the nation for batting average, with the team hitting .377.

2nd Year Shows Great Progress

M

In only the second year of the rebirth of the tennis program, the men's and women's teams have come a long way. Head Coach Christian Burns and his wife, Assistant Coach Melissa Burns, have watched their teams work hard to improve to a 5-11 record for the men and a 8-9 record for the women.

The Scots were led by freshmen Joe Ambler and Justin Yeary. The Lady Scots were led by the leadership of the 1st Senior of the rebirth of the program. Casey Anderson, and the talent of #1 Singles and #1 Doubles player Wendy Wheeler.

The highlight of the Scots' and Lady Scots' seasons was when both the men and women won the Stillman Invitational Tournament, in which Wendy Wheeler went undefeated to help the Scots "bring home the hardware to show Coach Lambert," as Coach Burns described it.

Maryville College 1999 Homecoming

Davis Hall is taming the Wildcats on their Homecoming Float. Davis residents put a lot of hard work into this year's float, and it shows.

Pearson Hall won first place this year for the Banner Competition. This award was well deserved.

Justin Leslie drives the military vehicle to end the 1999 parade. There were many people who contributed to the floats, and they are greatly appreciated.

Three MC students carry the banner for the start of the 1999 Maryville Homecoming Parade. Behind the banner are the MC bag pipers playing a joyful tune to celebrate another Homecoming at Maryville College.

The winners of the "Yell Like Hell" Bonfire are enjoying their victory. The winners from Davis Hall like the feeling of being number one.

The Davis Hall pyramid at the "Yell Like Hell" Bonfire won first place this year. The girls from Davis showed great enthusiasm for their hall.

Gamble Hall guys heckle the participants at the 1999 MCBonfire. In this group there are a few of our "Real Men" wearing kilts.

Natanya Watkinson and Elizabeth Benton celebrate their teams victory at the Bonfire. These girls are just showin' a little love.

Real Men Wear Kilts

Bust A Move!

This couple was one of many at the MC 1999 Homecoming Dance. This year the dance was held at The Baron's Room in Knoxville.

Below, Rusty Walker clowns for the camera while still looking sharp as a tack for the dance.

The Men's Basketball team at the dance. The question is are they as skilled at dancing as they are at basketball?

Robert McCants and Greg Boyce are styling at the Homecoming Dance. There were many decked out in their dressy attire, some you never knew could look so nice.

This couple is busting a move and having a great time while doing it.

These women look like they know where it is at. The cool place to be on October 23, 1999 was the Homecoming Dance. Were you there?

Backstage of the "Taming of The Shrew" the actresses prepare for their entrances. But they do their share of goofing off. Here Kellie Silva is having a laugh with Vickie Ayers.

Here is the final scene in the Spring production "Taming of The Shrew". Cheers! This show had to have an encore show because of the audience demand. It was an awesome production. Two thumbs up from the Chilowean.

Pictured here is Nikki Noto who played a woman giving birth to a dragon. It may sound odd, but Nikki brought the audience with her to the birth. She made the birth unbelievably real. An excellent job to Nikki, and to the whole cast of "Talking With...". "Talking With..." was the fall production this year, and there was a great turn out for all the showings. Maryville College Drama Department has been very popular this year.

In A Different World

In MC's Drama department there are people that transport you to worlds never even dreamed of. The actors and actresses work day and night to bring new places to Maryville campus.

Kellie Silva performed a monologue in the production "Talking With...". Kellie's character was a rodeo gal who was fed up with the "suits" in the business telling her how she should ride. Kellie also played Verona in the Spring production of "Taming of The Shrew".

Jessica Trent is pictured here as her character in "Talking With...". She played a daughter who is telling the story of her Mom's death. A very emotional piece, and there was not a dry eye in the theater. Jessica also played Baptista in "Taming of The Shrew".

Wild World of Theater

Mark Libbell is a sight to behold as the main character, Kate, in the play "Taming of The Shrew". Mark played a young man bent on making life hell for everyone, especially his brother Bianca. Bianca was played by David Cybulski. When Bianca and Kate were together it was not unusual for a wild fight to break out.

In the fall show "Talking With..." Stacy Jatko played an obsessed baton twirler. During her monologue Stacy showed off her skills by twirling her baton during her performance. What amazing talent! It was definitely an attention getter for the audience. The cast was made up of all women. "I am woman, hear me roar!"

Mark Libbell, who played Kate (left), is a freshman here at MC this was his first role in a MC production. We hope to see more of his performances in the future.

Smile girls the play is over, and congratulations it was a success. Cast members wear their matching shirts that say, "I can't... I have rehearsal." At least all the hard work paid off.

Cat fight! Cat fight! Watch out these girls mean business. In the play "Taming of The Shrew" Gremio (left) and Lucentio (right) fight over the love of Bianca, but only the strong will survive.

Hi, Xavi! Look at those pretty VOP shirts. Where can I get one of those? The best part of VOP is the fellowship.

VOP practice is a blast. They can really raise your spirits. Voices of Praise is not just about the singing it is also about the congregation and a spiritual social life. VOP practice on Thursday nights at 8:00p.m. Everyone is welcome to join in praising the Lord.

VOP travels to many different places in the community, within the state, and within the country. They have performed for such events as Martin Luther King Jr. Day, where they held a worship service here on campus in honor of the great M.L.K. The sounds of Voices of Praise bless the campus.

On February 24, 2000 in the Fine Arts Music Hall VOP had their Spring performance. President Gibson came to enjoy the wonderful sound of VOP. President Gibson was so pleased with the performance he had to get up and tell everyone. There were a good turn out for this performance which gave the members of VOP a good feeling to know that people enjoy praising the Lord with them.

Letoyia and Emily pose for the camera during practice. VOP is not all about practice they have fun while they do it, but they work very hard to achieve their beautiful sound. There is such a wonderful feeling with this group, the feeling is almost overwhelming. Good friends, good singing, and good worship how much more could a person ask for.

Team Effort

It's all in the family. Larry Ervin the director of VOP brought his brother in to help with the music. Leonard Ervin plays bass, guitar, and can sing like an angel. A very talented bunch to say the least.

D'Lisa Hopewell and a fellow VOP member practice very hard to keep their talent strong. VOP is something that you can commit to with feelings of joy and comfort. It is always a great feeling to hear them sing.

Singing For The World

Voices Of Praise has become very popular on campus this year. They have been doing many great things this year. They have made trips to Virginia and Florida to represent Maryville College among other gospel choirs. MC loves the VOP, and we hope they keep singing for the world.

Here is the whole gang singing at their Spring performance. The performance lasted for two and a half hours, but you never felt a minute go by. The music brings you in and keeps you glued.

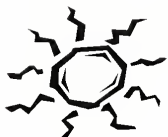

Soloist Melissa Wright practices her solo during the practice before the Spring performance in the FAC Music Hall. A lot of hard work goes into sounding so good.

Pictured here is the band that keeps VOP on the beat. These young men are at most every performance and they do a wonderful job. VOP is glad to have them.

These two girls duke it out in the Giant Air Boxing Ring. Watch out, she has a mean left jab!

Kids of all ages participated in this year's Blister in The Sun. The Giant Slide was a big hit amongst the youngsters.

Latoyia and Tamara cook-up some delicious cotton candy to raise money for the Black Student Association. Stephanie and Erin took advantage of the yummy cotton candy. Looks like Stephanie had to taste the merchandise before she bought the goods.

The Air-Brush Tattoos were a huge success. There was a constant line for a hot tattoo. They looked great and it was painless. Those kind of tattoos are the best kind.

Great Fun and Great Music

Jammin' music was provided throughout the entire day and could be heard all over campus. It kept the party hoppin'. All thanks to the D.J., Jason Khodadad.

The Bungee Run was a favorite at MC Blister 2000. Kelley Barnes tries out her skills and lands on her... Well, she gave it her best shot.

Fun in the Sun

Maryville College Blister 2000

Battle of the Scots was another great success for this year's Blister in the Sun. Senior Class President Brian Gosset loves whip cream.

This MC student tries to conquer "The Wall" by making it to the other side. "The Wall" was part of an obstacle course that only the brave would dare try.

The Dunking Booth was another popular activity at Blister this year. The Dunking Booth was sponsored by the MC S.G.A.

S.P.B. sponsors Blister in the Sun and they do an excellent job. Getting all the events set up is hard work. Good job, S.P.B.

Cheyenne and Tony say cheese for the camera at the spring dance. The dance was held at the Medieval Ball Room in Knoxville. Patrons of the dance said that the dance was a blast.

These three beautiful ladies look like they are having a good time.

Ashley Barker and Chad Davis are ready to dance the night away.

Dancin' Around the World

Amanda Walker and Dan Kroger enjoy a nice meal before the big night of dancing and partying.

Cheyenne Hurley and Ashley Barker are anxious to get the night started. Spring Fling is a night of great memories. Memories that will last a life time.

A Time of Great Joy

Senior Wine and Cheese is a time honored tradition here at Maryville College. Seniors enjoy good drinks, food, and fellowship during this celebration of the end of their college career.. It is another new experience for students.

Senior Wine and Cheese was held this year in Profit Dining Room. The seniors seem to have been enjoying themselves. There was a great celebration for their new lives are about to begin.

A Toast to the New World

Maryville College Senior Wine and Cheese 2000

A toast to the Maryville College Class of 2000! To the senior class of MC Senior Wine and Cheese is the best part of the whole senior year. Minus the Senior Thesis, of course.

Kelly Martz and other faculty members were on hand at this long standing event of Maryville College.

Senior Wine and Cheese is the MC Drinking Team's event. They show off their team colors by wearing their creative team caps.

Brian Gosset and Brooke Daniel say "Senior Wine and CHEESE."

Here's to Maryville College!
Everyone gathered at the end of the event for a group picture on the steps of PDR. It's one great looking bunch.

A picture of pure intellect, culture, and etiquette. All of the things MC strives to accomplish in each class.

Great friends, great wine, and great memories.

Futures that shine bright.

The Best in The World

Maryville College Senior Bar-B-Que 2000

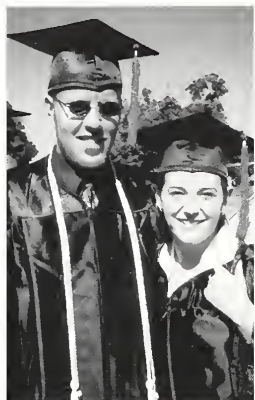

Maryville College Class of 2000

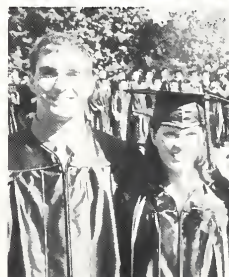

Graduation took place this year on May 14, 2000. For these seniors it was a Mother's Day that will not be forgotten. No one could have asked for a more beautiful day to end a college career.

MC students out and about throughout the year

One Final Look

My

Editor's Page

Here I am at the end of my college career. It has been a long four years, but well worth all that went into it. This year has by far been the hardest, but it is the year that has changed my life. It is the year I mastered time management, thanks to my Senior Thesis. It is the year I learned the pleasure of success and the bitterness of failure, thanks to completing my degree and not getting into law school. I learned the sorrow of losing someone close to me when one of my dearest friends took his own life just days before graduation. However, in the midst of pain I found a new lease on life. I found a way to take such a great loss and turn it into something wonderful. I have learned that failure is never really failure because it teaches you to work harder for what you want. I know now that I have a year to make of it what I can and then try again for that goal of getting accepted to law school. I have learned that success only comes to those who work hard and are patient because the reward is out there...sometimes we just have to look for it.

There are always numerous people that I must thank in my endeavor to put out a great yearbook. I will start with Allison--we have been doing this for three years together and without you I know I would not have been able to handle it. Thanks and I will miss you! Jessica--the Chilhowean is now yours. I have all the faith in the world in you. You will be a great Editor. Michelle--you are always the one with all the faith in me. Thanks for believing in me. To the rest of my staff--I will miss you and wish you all the best in the future. Thanks for doing a great job.

There are also people that I must thank for their assistance in my life in general. First, I must thank my parents. You are the ones who have encouraged me to follow my heart and dreams. Next, I must thank Manda. You are the one who has worked very hard on this project without even being a student here. Thanks Sis! Next, I must thank Tena Overturf. You are more than just a friend to me. You are like family. Thanks for always listening and putting a smile on my face. I will miss our daily conversations more than you will ever realize. Finally, I must thank Paul. You helped me out so much in the final deadlines. Thanks for helping, being my best friend, and for loving me.

I wish everyone the best life has to offer. Remember to always keep Christ first in your life and anything is possible. I have many memories to take with me from this place and I will cherish them for eternity. I hope each of you will do the same.

--Melissa M. Walker

Proverbs 3:5-6

I write this in loving memory of Patrick Lyn Madjarac (May 9, 2000)
